SCHOOL OF COMPUTER AND INFORMATION SCIENCES

VISION

The School of Computer and Information Sciences envisions itself as a center of excellence in computing education, research and innovation in the Bicol Region, producing globally competitive and ethically responsible IT professionals.

MISSION

The School is committed to provide quality, relevant and accessible computing education through outcomes-based instruction, responsive research and meaningful community extension, forming graduates who use technology to serve society.